Filling with joy of patriotism

The Independence Day Celebration was a dazzling spectacle, uniting students, faculty in joy and patriotism. Flags waved proudly, filling the school grounds with the spirit of freedom and national pride as the day commenced with a vibrant parade. Hoisting the National Flag, Dr K K Shajahan, Chairman, National Public School delivered an insightful message on patriotism, dignity and proudness being an Indian where Mr Nazim Sain who shared a thought on the peace our forefathers grabbed, advised each child to uphold oneness in the presence of Ms Subina Sudheer, Vice Principal. Students' performances on traditional songs and dances captivated the audience, evoking a sense of nostalgia and national unity. The heartfelt speeches delivered by students inspired everyone to reflect on the sacrifices made for our independence and the ongoing journey toward peace and progress.

Our Students from Hindustan Scouts and Guides participated in the parade organised by the Police Academy where they displayed the best in maintaining pride and pleasure as an Indian. As the day unfolded with delicious sweets lined the pathways, offering a taste of the diverse culture of our National pride. The Independence Day Celebration was not only a commemoration of our heritage but also an opportunity to strengthen the bonds of community, reminding us all that our freedom is a treasure worth celebrating together.

Celebrating colours of Onam*Snippets-Onam Celebrations

Onam, the vibrant harvest festival of Kerala, was celebrated with immense enthusiasm and grandeur at National Public School. The campus was adorned with traditional floral decoration, the "Pookalam," created by students and staff alike, showcasing intricate patterns and an array of colors. The celebration began with a grand assembly where students recited Onam songs, danced to traditional tunes, and shared stories highlighting the festival's cultural significance. Our emerging blooms visited the various busy spots of our town with our student 'Mahabali' providing awareness on wiping away hatredness, cruelty towards children and human beings, war and so on. Emphasizing for tranquility, the blooms of National sang melodious onam songs and performed thiruvathira in soothing the busy minds in the midst of the harvesting days.

At school, the joyful atmosphere was palpable, with students dressed in traditional attire, reflecting the rich heritage of Kerala, which added to the festive spirit. The highlight of the Onam celebration was the message given by Dr K K Shajahan, Chairman, National Public School in the benign presence of Mr Nazim Sain, Principal and Ms Subina Sudheer, Vice Principal. Another captivating slot was the 'paayasam contest' for parents. Various games such as Musical Chair, tug of war etc have been conducted besides the exquisite performance of our little ones 'grant thiruvathira'.

Another lovely "Onam Sadhya," featuring an elaborate splendour and enormous blessings for the years ahead carved gratefulness among the humble minds. Various cultural activities, including traditional games and competitions, further enriched the experience, making the year's Onam celebration at National Public School a memorable event that honored tradition while promoting togetherness and spirit.

Career Guidance-orientation for students

The Orientation Class on Career Guidance was an enlightening experience for the young blooms of National Public School which spearheaded students on the path to discover their professional aspirations. The session has been led by Mr Santhosh, Attendees eagerly filled the space, buzzing with anticipation as the career expert shared insights about various fields and opportunities.

Interactive discussions brought clarity to the often overwhelming world of career choices, helping students understand the importance of aligning their passions with practical career pathways. Interactions provide pathways for students to develop essential skills on how to be in the main realm of focus. The real-life success stories shared by guest speakers served as motivational beacons, showcasing diverse journeys and the myriad of possibilities ahead. This class became a stepping stone, empowering students to take charge of their futures, inspiring them to dream big and navigate their pathways with confidence and purpose.

ILM-Lead to win

The Selection of ILM Leaders day was electrifying, as candidates were being selected based on their skills and vision for the future. A buzz of excitement filled the air as students were anxious to hear the leaders among them. The event featured a powerful presentation of Mr Mahesh, the faculty of ILM highlighting unique perspectives and innovative ideas to drive the initiative forward. All students listened attentively, captivated by speeches that sparked inspiration and motivation. This selection process was not just about names and titles; it was a celebration of potential leaders ready to make a difference in our school to change the whole system to an English speaking Campus.

As the announcement reverberated through the auditorium, cheers erupted as the new ILM leaders were unveiled who were being bestowed upon by the badge by Mr Nazim Sain, Principal, National Public School. Their commitments to inclusivity, innovation, and collaboration promise an exciting future for our school. The Selection of ILM Leaders underscored the importance of student engagement and empowered students to have their voices heard. This day marked not just a transition in leadership but the dawn of new ideas set to shape the course of the organization.

Observation of Hiroshima-Nagasaki Day

Students' rally on Anti war awareness

The Hiroshima Nagasaki Day Awareness Rally was a profound and moving event, dedicated to remembering the impact of atomic bombings and promoting peace. Students gathered with posters and banners, proudly displaying messages of hope, healing, and unity. The air was filled with solemnity as speeches of tender blooms echoed the importance of remembrance. They urged the community to stand against war and violence, sharing stories that touched hearts and ignited passion for peace. The vibrant yet respectful atmosphere served as a reminder of the collective responsibility we share to ensure history does not repeat itself.

The initiative on spreading news invited everyone to contribute to a shared vision of a world free of nuclear weapons. The rally culminated in a moment of silence, honoring the lives lost and the survivors' resilience. The Hiroshima Nagasaki Day Awareness Rally was not just a remembrance; it was a call to action, inspiring countless individuals to advocate for a peaceful future together.
